To commemorate the birth anniversary of Bhagwan Birsa Munda, a great freedom fighter, tribal leader, and social reformer, an Essay Writing Competition was organized on 11th November 2025 at GPG, SURAT. The event aimed to honor the legacy of Bhagwan Birsa Munda and inspire students to learn about his immense contribution to India's freedom struggle and the upliftment of tribal communities.

The competition was open to students of all classes, and the topic for the essay was

“Bhagwan Birsa Mundaji nu Jivan Charitra”

Participants enthusiastically expressed their thoughts on Birsa Munda's role in resisting British colonial rule, his efforts toward tribal rights, and his vision for social equality and justice.

A total of 24 students took part in the competition. The essays were evaluated based on content, originality, presentation, and language by a panel of judges comprising Mr. J. M. Joshi (DCE), Mr. P. A. Patel (DIT), M. M. Umariya (DCE). The winners were announced and prizes were distributed by the Principal, who also encouraged the students to follow the ideals of Bhagwan Birsa Munda.

The competition proved to be a great success, creating awareness among students about the life, values, and sacrifice of Bhagwan Birsa Munda — a true symbol of courage and social justice.
