

Report on celebration of An Anti-Ragging Week from 12th August to 18th August 2026.

As we all know that in order to prevent ragging UGC framed regulation on curbing the menace of ragging in higher educational institutions and required to take necessary steps for its implementation and monitoring mechanism as per provisions in D.O.No.F.1-74/2006(ARC) dated 22nd july, 2025 regulations and ensure its strict compliance.

Ours is a girls' college and we would like to give you some glimpses of an Anti-Ragging Week we have conducted here:

Day 1: Anti-Ragging Awareness & Orientation Program

 Venue: Vivekananda Hall & Sardar Patel Hall, Government Polytechnic for Girls, Surat

 Date: 12 August 2026 | Participants: 314

To ensure a safe, inclusive, and friendly environment for incoming students, Government Polytechnic for Girls, Surat, successfully organized an Anti-Ragging Awareness & Orientation Program.

Anti-Ragging Committee members conducted informative sessions covering:

- Types and impact of ragging.
- Legal implications under the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS)
- Campus support mechanisms (Committee & Squad details)
- Submission of mandatory online Anti-Ragging Affidavits

We remain committed to maintaining a strict Zero-Tolerance Policy toward ragging on campus.

Day-2 Screening of Anti-Ragging Short Films & Documentaries.

Venue: Vivekananda Hall, Government Polytechnic for Girls, Surat

Date: 13 August 2026 | Participants: 333

As part of its ongoing awareness campaign, Government Polytechnic for Girls, Surat, hosted a video screening session on 13 August 2026 at Vivekananda Hall.

The event aimed to sensitize students and faculty members to the emotional and social impacts of ragging. Attendees were shown a series of UGC-approved anti-ragging short films, documentary features, and official TVCs—including awareness videos specifically targeted toward parents and potential victims. The session fostered a strong collective understanding of campus safety, empathy, and early reporting mechanisms.

Together, we say NO to ragging.

Day-3 Anti-Ragging Online undertaking registration

Venue: Classrooms and Laboratories of respective departments, Government Polytechnic for Girls, Surat

Date: 14 August 2026 | Participants: 331

As part of the ongoing Anti-Ragging Awareness and Compliance Drive, the third day of the initiative focused specifically on assisting students with the compulsory Anti-Ragging Online Undertaking Registration mandated by the University Grants Commission (UGC) and institutional guidelines. Faculty provided step-by-step guidance for smooth form filling, reference number generation, and query resolution, thereby reinforcing a zero-tolerance policy and ensuring a safe, ragging-free campus.
