"Har Ghar Tiranga" for Independence Day Celebration

Event Date: 11th August 2024

Time: 5:00 PM onwards

Venue: Starting from ONGC Bridge to RR Mall, Surat

For the celebration of India's 78th Independence Day, Surat Mahanagar organized an Independence Week celebration from 9th August to 15th August 2024 as per the direction of Ministry of cultural and tourism. Government Polytechnic for Girls, Surat has also taken part in this celebration week. The theme of this year's celebrations was "Har Ghar Tiranga," promoting patriotism and unity by encouraging citizens to display the national flag at their homes.

As part of the celebrations, a grand Tiranga Rally was organized on 11th August 2024, starting from the ONGC Bridge in Surat at 5:00 PM. Students and staff members from various colleges across Surat were invited to participate in this significant event. Our college was well-represented at the rally, with 150 enthusiastic students and 15 dedicated staff members participating. The rally was a vibrant display of patriotism, with participants proudly carrying the tricolor flag, singing patriotic songs, and spreading the message of national unity.

Also, a quiz competition was organised at institute level in which more than 350 students had participated.

The event was coordinated by Mr. P. P. Rana and Mrs. J. R. Patel, whose meticulous planning and guidance ensured the smooth execution of the rally. Their efforts, along with the support of our esteemed Principal, Mr. J. M. Joshi, led to the successful completion of this event.

Outcomes of the Event:

The event successfully instilled a deeper sense of patriotism among students and staff. Participants expressed a renewed pride in their national identity. The rally brought together students and staff from various colleges, fostering a sense of community and shared purpose. The "Har Ghar Tiranga" campaign gained significant momentum, with many participants pledging to display the national flag at their homes, thus spreading awareness about the initiative. The rally sent a strong message of unity and patriotism to the local community, inspiring others to participate in the Independence Day celebrations. This event will be remembered as a significant contribution to the spirit of Independence Day 2024.
