

GUJARAT TECHNOLOGY UNIVERSITY
NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME
GOVERNMENT POLYTECHNIC FOR GIRLS

A Report on “Visit to Umbhel village for notebook/stationary distribution”

On 14.08.2024

Of (615) GOVERNMENT POLYTECHNIC FOR GIRLS

NSS Unit Name/College Name: (615) Government Polytechnic for Girls, Surat

Event NAME: Visit to village for notebook/stationary distribution

Event Date and Time and Location: 14.08.2024 at 11:00 AM onwards

Location: Fort of Surat, Nanpura, Surat

Brief Description of the Event:

As a part of the National Service Scheme (NSS) event, NSS volunteers along with 2 faculty members fr

Activities:

Guided Tour: The group commenced the journey with a guided tour provided by a knowledgeable local historian. The tour encompassed the significant landmarks within the fort premises, including bastions, gates, mosques, and historical monuments.

Historical Narratives: Our volunteers and faculty members were captivated by the historical narratives shared by the guide, delving into the fort's origins dating back to the Mughal era and its subsequent expansions and renovations under different rulers.

Architectural Marvels: The architectural intricacies of the fort left a profound impression on the participants. They admired the fusion of Mughal, Portuguese, and British architectural styles evident in various structures within the fort.

Cultural Insights: Throughout the tour, volunteers gained valuable insights into the cultural heritage embedded within the fort. They learned about the diverse communities that inhabited Surat over the centuries and their contributions to the city's cultural tapestry.

Major Outcomes of Event:

The exploration of the Fort of Surat proved to be an enriching and enlightening experience for all participants. It not only deepened our appreciation for the historical heritage of Surat but also fostered a sense of cultural pride and identity among the volunteers.

Photography of the Event:

